Expenses such as tuition, fees (such as lab fees), software required for a specific course (should be listed in syllabus), or books for courses or certifications will be considered for reimbursement. Preparatory courses for certification testing will also be eligible for reimbursement.

9. What happens if the certification requires multiple exams before I get awarded the certification?

All certification exams required towards earning the certification will be eligible for reimbursement.

10. What do I write in the text box in the application about how this applies to my career progression at Maximus?

Professional and personal development goals should be part of every performance conversation between you and your manager. Use this field to refer to that conversation to explain to your manager why this education aligns with your desired career progression at Maximus. Some education requests may be clearly aligned with the current role. However, for employees looking to learn a new skill to move laterally or into a new field at Maximus, it will be helpful to explain to your manager how the requested degree, course or certification aligns with a career path at Maximus.

11. After I submit my application, do I need to ask my manager to approve it?

No, the Tuition Reimbursement Portal will automatically send an approval request to your manager. If your application status remains pending for an extended period, you may want to follow up with your manager regarding the approval step.

12. How can I check the status of my application?

Go to the employee dashboard. Once you have applied, you can review it in Application Details.

13. Can I withdraw a tuition reimbursement request?

Requests can be withdrawn if they have not yet been approved for payment.

14. What grade do I need to get reimbursed?

- For college courses, you must receive a grade of C or higher to be eligible for reimbursement.
- For certifications, you need to pass the certification exam, or provide proof of obtaining the certification.

15. What documents do I need when submitting a reimbursement request?

Proof of payment and proof of grade or passed certification exam/attainment of certification. Proof of payment must include an itemized receipt showing the course/certification and that the balance was paid in full.

16. How do I enter costs in the application for approval if I am not sure how much each item costs yet?

For the best user experience, work with your program to try to confirm all costs before submitting your application. If you do not know the exact costs upfront, estimate to the best of your ability. At the time of the reimbursement request, the final itemized bill will be used to determine what will be reimbursed.

17. If I do not have all the documents needed, can I save my application and return to my Tuition Reimbursement portal profile?

Yes.

18. When will I receive my reimbursement?

Reimbursements will be processed through your regular Maximus paycheck within 1-2 pay periods after the approval of the reimbursement request.

19. What happens if I do not pass the class or certification?

Reimbursements will not be processed for grades lower than a C or a failed certification exam. If a course or certification exam is taken multiple times, reimbursement will only be offered one time when the course or certification exam has been passed.

20. What happens if my request is denied?

- Check the notes section for rationale behind why it was denied.
- If the request to take a course or certification is denied, talk to your manager about why this request was denied and how you can develop within the available career paths at Maximus. If your manager agrees that the requested education is aligned with a career path at Maximus, submit a new request for approval.
- If the request for reimbursement is denied, it could be because your grade was not sufficient, or incorrect documentation was provided.

21. How do I appeal a denied request?

Submit a ticket to the People Services Portal under the Tuition Reimbursement catalog category and request an appeal.

22. The program starts October 1, 2023 – what if I am already taking a class or certification?

If your class or certification ends on or after October 1, 2023, it is eligible for reimbursement. To be compliant, the request for reimbursement must be submitted within 45 days of course completion.

23. How is the $2,500 annual reimbursement tracked?

Reimbursements are tracked based on course completion, not payment date. This means that if a course ends on December 31, 2023, but is paid on February 5, 2024, that course would be accounted for in the 2023 plan year. Even though the payment was received in 2024, in this example, you would still be eligible for $2,500.00 in the 2024 plan year.

24. Does this Tuition Reimbursement Program cover society membership fees?

No. Professional society memberships are covered through the Professional Society Memberships policy.

25. I can't spend this much money on education – are there any other options for me?

Yes. Maximus offers free learning resources through MyLearning to support your career journey.

Cash advances will not be offered. Please refer to question 27.

27. What if I have a payment plan or deferred payment schedule with my school?

Tuition.io will accept either a document that shows payment in full, payment plan information, or deferment agreements granted by the school. If you can provide the deferment arrangement or the payment plan you have made with your school, Tuition.io can move forward with final approval of your application and you will still get reimbursed as if you paid in full.
